

Dear students,

Welcome to another week of online learning! Thank you to all those that completed the work I assigned last week.

The Google Meet will be on Monday, April 27 at 1 PM. Please check your email for the Google Meet invitation. The Google Meet continues to be used to check-in and have a question/answer period for help with anything you might need.

Every week you will be expected to complete the work sent in the Google Doc and it will need to be completed on the Friday of every week.

All work needs to be submitted to me by email at krystal.martin@ocsb.ca or you can place it in your Hapara folder under French. Please make sure to give your work a title so I can easily find it.

Please see below for this week's work:
